

AMENDMENTS TO THE CLAIMS

The following listing of claims will replace all prior versions, and listing of claims in the application:

LISTING OF CLAIMS:

Claim 1 (Currently amended) A key comprising:

a blade; ~~and~~

a bow formed on an end of the blade, the bow ~~including~~ having a pair of opposing faces, a first hole formed through the opposing faces and a second hole formed through the opposing faces adjacent an outer end thereof;

an ornamental member mounted in the first hole of the bow; and a transparent casing having opposing front and back walls spaced from each other and joined by an end wall extending along a perimeter of the front and back walls to define a compartment therebetween, the casing having a first opening in a distal end thereof in open communication with the compartment, the bow being disposed in the compartment to thereby retain means for retaining the ornamental member in the hole of the bow, the blade extending through the first opening of the casing and the casing having a pair of second openings respectively formed in aligned relationship through the front and back walls, the pair of second openings being disposed in at least partially aligned relationship with the second hole of the bow.

Claims 2 – 6 (Cancelled).